

REMARKS

In the Final Office Action mailed on November 15, 2006, the Examiner rejected claims 1-22 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 5,991,498 to Young in view of an article titled “Technical Information: Digital Signals” by Samson.

In making the obviousness rejection of claims 1-22, the Examiner has misinterpreted the meaning of the term “live-pause.” This term is defined on page 2, line 9 – page 3, line 7 of the specification. In particular, live-pause operation requires continued recording of the program while the user rewinds and fast-forwards through the portion of the program already recorded.

As stated by the Examiner, Young can only rewind or fast-forward through content “during stop recording.” See Final Rejection mailed November 15, 2006, page 2, last paragraph. The Examiner’s interpretation of the term “live-pause” is inconsistent with the interpretation given to this term in the specification and the claims. Therefore, the rejection of claims 1-22 is incorrect.

Dependent claims 2-8, 10-16 and 18-22 are allowable due to their dependence on an allowable base claim.

CONCLUSION
